Legal basis for processing your information for Purpose 1

Processing of your HESA information is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in HESA (See GDPR Article 6(1)(e)).

Processing of non-academic staff information may also be necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the Controller or by a third party (See GDPR Article 6(1)(f)).

Processing of Special Categories of data is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest in accordance with the Equality Act (Article 9(2)(g), UK GDPR and paragraph 8, part 2, schedule 1, Data Protection Act 2018); and necessary for statistical and research purposes in accordance with Article 89(1) and research purposes based on the duties in the Equality Act 2010, Section 75 of the Northern Ireland Act 1998, or the Digital Economy Act 2017 or equivalent subsequent legislation, or for other research purposes (Article 9(2)(j), UK GDPR, and paragraph 4, part 1, schedule 1, Data Protection Act 2018).

PURPOSE 2 INDIVIDUAL LEVEL DATA USED FOR PUBLIC FUNCTIONS BY PUBLIC AUTHORITIES

HESA acts as an information hub to provide data and statistics on higher education. While the bodies described in Purpose 1 (above) have legal or regulatory power to require information from certain higher education providers, other public authorities also use your HESA information for their statutory and/or public functions including funding, regulation and policy-making purposes.

Education statistics and data

HESA also acts as an information hub to provide information on higher education. In England, this is undertaken by your HESA information with public authorities who require it to carry out their statutory and/or public functions. This data sharing is carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in HESA and the public authorities. Your HESA information will be shared with these organisations as part of a large dataset which contains similar information about other people who work at higher education providers in the UK.

PURPOSE 3 - HESA PUBLICATIONS

HESA publishes statistics about staff working in higher education.

information about higher education in the public interest. This includes Official and National Statistics publications (<https://uksa.statisticsauthority.gov.uk/about-the-authority/uk-statistical-system/types-of-official-statistics/>) and online business intelligence and research services.

When producing this material for publication, HESA applies its disclosure control, the HESA Standard Rounding Methodology, to ensure that no Personal Data is included and that individuals cannot be identified from published material.
